Council 222

April 23, 2010

MEMORANDUM FOR: Holly Salamido, Labor Relations Branch

FROM: Russell D. Varnado, President
AFGE Council of HUD Locals 222

SUBJECT: Information Technology Upgrade

This will serve as AFGE Council of HUD Locals 222 demand to bargain over the proposed Information Technology Grade. Below are our preliminary proposals:

1. Adverse Impact on Employees: Management agrees that problems arising directly from the Windows 7 operating system that have an adverse impact on employee's ability to perform his or her duties will not affect an employee's performance rating.
2. Telework: Deployment of the Windows 7 operating system shall not adversely impact employee's ability to telework.
3. Training: Management shall provide each employee a minimum amount of training that will enable them to utilize the operating systems functionality to accomplish his or her duties.

These are preliminary proposals only, and the union reserves the right to bargain or amend or add proposals, in accordance with Article 5.

Delegation of Authority

The purpose of this communication is to provide the delegation of authority to negotiate the proposed Information Technology Upgrade, under the authority of American Federation of Government Employees ("AFGE") Council 222.
