SUBJECT: Implementation of Single Family Point Of Contact (SFPOC) Designation

SCOPE: The scope of this agreement relates to the impact of designating bargaining unit employees as SFPOC to Field Office Director (FOD)

1. Designation Process: Management agrees that the designation process for Point of Contact (POC) will be fair and equitable across the board now and in the future.
2. Geographical Designation: Management agrees where no Single Family staff are present, that a Single Family staff member from another office will be assigned as the POC for the Field Office Director.
3. Clarification: Management agrees to provide clarification of the Single Family Point of Contact Designation identified in the revised memorandum to Field Office Director (FOD).
4. Functional Statement: Management agrees to provide an updated functional statement for the Program Support Division that includes the SFPOC designation.
5. Program Work Assignments: The parties agree that program work assignments will be made in accordance with Supplement 39 – paragraph 2.
6. Volunteers for Designation: Management agrees to give consideration to those employees who wish to volunteer for the SFPOC assignment. Such consideration will be fair and equitable.
