Update on HUD's Return to Office Work Directive

Dear AFGE Members,

We have received the January 24th, 2025, memorandum from HUD's Chief of Staff regarding the return to in-office work mandate. The directive indicates that bargaining unit employees who are not on remote work agreements will be required to return to their duty stations beginning the week of February 24.

Your Council leadership is actively reviewing this directive and its implications for our members. We understand this announcement may raise questions and concerns. Rest assured that your interests remain our top priority.

We will provide guidance next week after a thorough analysis of the memorandum and its impact on our collective bargaining agreement rights.

Please monitor your email for updates from AFGE National Council 222 leadership.

Please contact your local union representative for additional guidance and updates.

In Solidarity,
Antonio F. Gaines
President
AFGE National Council 222

Note: This message pertains to the Presidential Memorandum on Return to In-Office Work as communicated by HUD on January 24th 2025.
